

Jorja Bradley- #25 Sophomore

Jorja Bradley was selected C Team Volleyball Athlete of the Week. Jorja has played volleyball since the 4th grade and her improvement through the years is remarkable. She's been effectively serving, passing and hitting the ball. In fact, Jorja helped us with a 25-16 victory over Amery with seven Ace serves. Jorja is not only a skilled volleyball player but she is also a caring teammate who offers words of encouragement and guidance. Thanks Jorja, you are Awesome!)

What is your favorite thing about playing volleyball?

Getting to work well with my team and do team building things together.

What is your favorite position to play in volleyball and why?

I enjoy being a back row receiver the most because it is more challenging and I get to dive more.

What has been the highlight of your volleyball season (including summer and contact day activities)?

The highlight of my volleyball season this year was serving several aces in a row. The highlight of my volleyball career is being told that I'm a great leader.

What are you looking forward to the most this season?

I am looking forward to winning with my team.

What/who motivates you for success?

My friends and family.

What is your favorite quote? (Be sure to let us know who it is from)

"Be yourself; everyone else is already taken." -Oscar Wilde

What is your favorite book or movie and why?

My favorite book is "Any Man" by Amber Tamblyn because the novel is in a poem format and it made the story more interesting to read.

What is your favorite musician and/or music genre?

My favorite musician is Childish Gambino.

What do you stand for? What are you all about (Your purpose)?

I stand for equality for all people.
